

Both tapped holes lie on opposite sides of a circle of diameter 1.59", concentric with the 1.22" circle. This mates with a flanged bearing.

Dimensions with no tolerance default to reasonable shop tolerance.

This height is critical as it lines up with a shaft.